Letter of Engagement

Thank you for choosing this office to prepare your tax return. This letter confirms the terms of my engagement with you and outlines the nature and extent of the services I will provide.

I will prepare your federal and state tax returns for the current tax year from the information you furnish to me. It is your responsibility to provide me with all the information required for the preparation of complete and accurate returns. I will not audit or otherwise verify the data you submit, although I may ask you to clarify some of it. You, therefore, specifically confirm to me that all items have been disclosed to me and that you have written records to support all items claimed (receipts, cancelled checks, diaries, log books, etc.).

Since the final responsibility for the completeness and accuracy of the returns is yours, you agree to review them carefully to fully acquaint yourself with all items contained therein to ensure that there are no omissions or misstatements, before you sign them.

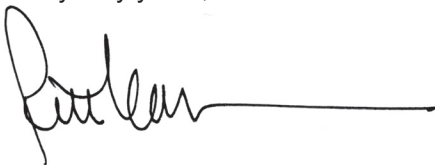

It is important for you to know that the law imposes a penalty if a taxpayer makes a substantial understatement of tax liability. You should also know that the IRS audit procedures will almost always include questions on deductions that require strict documentation such as travel and entertainment expenses, and business usage of autos and computers. In preparing your returns, I rely on your representations that I have been informed of all bartering transactions and that you understand and have complied with the documentation requirements for your expenses and deductions.

My fee for tax services is based on the number of forms prepared and the complexity of those forms. I expect to be paid in full upon the completion of the return. Any unpaid invoices over 90 days will be referred for collection.

Any material you furnish for use in preparing your returns will be returned to you at the completion of your returns. If the returns are examined by taxing authorities, requests may be made for supporting documentation. Therefore, I recommend that you retain all pertinent records for at least seven years.

If the tax services and terms outlined above are in accordance with your understanding of our engagement, please sign this letter in the space provided. I appreciate the opportunity to serve you. If you have any questions, need additional information, or if I can be of assistance in any way, please call me.

Very truly yours,

Peter F. Corrao

I (We) have submitted this information on my (our) tax organizer for the sole purpose of preparing my (our) tax return(s). Each item can be substantiated by receipts, cancelled checks, or other documents. This information is true, correct, and complete to the best of my (our) knowledge.
